Observations...

By UDELL

We want to thank the Highway Commissioner John D. Smith for the white stripe on the bridge. It certainly makes traveling easier.

According to Fred Herlihy, postmaster, four rural free delivery mail boxes were damaged one night last week in the vicinity between St. Joseph street and St. Claire's church, and one on Sears avenue, Waveland. This damage was caused by some high explosive as the boxes were completely demolished with evidence showing that it was caused by some type of explosive material.

A friendly warning to the guilty party or parties... Damage to mail recipients is a serious offense as this is Federal property. When a person of a rural route purchases a mail box, it becomes Government property as soon as he mounts it for receiving mail. Anyone convicted of damaging mail boxes is subject to a penalty of $1200 fine and three years in the Federal Penitentiary. Anyone having information which might lead to the arrest of any person connected with the damage to these boxes is asked to report same immediately to the local Postoffice.

The general public is invited to the Cantata to be presented by the Bay High girls' chorus Thursday, December 18 at 8:00 p. m. in the auditorium. A new Cantata will be presented this year in addition to narrations and silent characterizations.

The Hancock County March of Dimes committee is making plans for a benefit basketball tournament to be given in the near future. As everyone knows, 1952 has hit an all-time high for polio cases. The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis was called upon for assistance which they readily gave, more this year than ever before. If you feel that you can give any assistance to the County committee, contact Mrs. Theo Tudury, chairman. Your help will be appreciated.

A free Christmas party for the entire family will be given at the Highway Drive-In Theatre Thursday, December 18. Santa Claus will be on hand to distribute candy and popcorn to all attending. A free movie will also be shown.

We would like to extend our heartfelt congratulations to Mr. Archie B. Hart on the occasion of his 91st birthday. Mr. Hart, who was one in the publishing field, has dedicated many years of his life to serving his community.

Have you searched your children's toy boxes yet for usable toys for the annual Youth Center Christmas tree? These teen-agers would like to receive any toy, that is in good condition or that can be repaired, to distribute to the needy children in the community on Christmas day. Contact Mrs. R. W. Bowers, Mrs. Cyril Glover or B. R. Nobles and they will gladly collect your donations. Your gift will make some child happy on Christmas morning.

Don't forget the Lions' Club movie to be presented in conjunction with the A & G Theatre Thursday afternoon, December 18. Admission will be one can of food to be used in the Christmas baskets to be distributed by the Lions.

Bay Presbyterians Have New Church

Seminary Grad Named Bishop

The Rev. Joseph Bowers S. V. D., J. C. L., an alumnus of St. Augustine's Seminary has been named Auxiliary Bishop of Acra, Gold Coast, West Africa by Pope Pius XII. The news of the appointment was published in the Divine Word Generalist by the Very Rev. William C. Bauer, S. V. D., Provincial of the Southern African Province of the Society of the Divine Word.

Father Bowers the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sheriff Bowers, was born March 28, 1910 at Vieille Case, Dominica West Indies (Diocese of Roseau). He was an excellent student at the public school of his hometown.

Bishop-elect entered St. Augustine's Seminary in Bay St. Louis in 1928 and was graduated from the junior college in 1931. He made his novitiate from 1931 to 1933 at East Troy Wisconsin, where he pronounced his first vows in the Divine Word order.

For the next five years the young Seminarian pursued his philosophical and theological studies at St. Augustine's. On September 8, 1938, he pronounced his perpetual vows in the Society of the Divine Word.

In October 1938 the newly-named Bishop was sent to Rome to complete his last year of theology and was ordained there January 22, 1939. Returning to his home-land and then to the United States the following summer, he received his appointment to the Gold Coast Mission which was just taken over by the Divine Word missionaries.

After nine years of zealous work Father Bowers returned to the United States for the usual year's leave of recuperation. In 1948, he returned to Acra and was soon named assistant to the highest Divine Word superior of the Mission.

In 1950, Father Bowers was again sent to Rome for higher studies in Canon Law. Last June he received the degree of Licentiate from the Gregorian University and then returned to Acra. Bishop-elect Bowers, a British citizen, will assist the American Ordinary of the diocese of Acra, the Most Reverend Adolph A. Noser S. V. D., S. T. D. The diocese of Acra has 33,800 Catholics in a population of 1,311,000. It is staffed by 39 Divine Word Missionaries and three native African priests. Four of the Divine Word Missionaries are Negro priests trained at St. Augustine's Seminary here.

Discuss Influence Of Community Life At P-T. A. Meeting Tuesday

"Promoting Welfare of Children and Youth in Home, Church, Community and School" was the topic of the panel discussion led by Lamar Fortenberry, principal of Bay High, at the Bay Central P-T. A. meeting held Tuesday night.

Mrs. Sam Whitfield, in discussing the home, stated that it was the institution created by God. In it the child spends the most formative years of his life. She compared a child with a plant; before the plant blooms, while in bloom and after the bloom has fallen off, the plant needs different kinds of sprays, thus a child's needs may vary at different stages of its development. The church, the school and the community depend on the home.

Rev. Schuyler Batson said that no city is fit without any one of these institutions—the home, the church, the community or the school. He related that it was the duty of the church to educate in the following aspects; the sacredness of the marriage vow, creating a wholesome family life, making Christianity practical, encouraging frank discussion of all problems with parents creating wholesome attitudes toward fund and recreation, creating an atmosphere of a democratic society and preparing youth for life by encouraging them to become informed.

Cyril Glover, City Commissioner, pointed out that there was a great spirit of cooperation and support between the City government and the school. In addition to making possible the public school, under the direction of the Board of Trustees and the Superintendent of Schools, it provides for parks and playgrounds for the children and contributes to the Youth Center and to the Public Library.

Announce 1953 March of Dimes Volunteer Workers

The appointment of volunteer community leaders who have accepted chairmanships of committees for the month-long 1953 March of Dimes, which begins January 2, was announced today by Mrs. Theo Tudury, County campaign director.

Facing the consequences of the worst polio epidemic in the nation's history, this year's volunteer force is the largest ever enlisted, the director asserted.

"What happened to the nation last summer and fall," she said, "was more than a violent upsurge of polio incidence. It was a national calamity that wiped out all previous standards of comparison."

"For months and years to come, thousands of men, women and children will require all the skills that modern and modern knowledge can master to help restore them to useful lives. Add to this the total of those stricken in other years and it becomes apparent what an enormous financial burden is now carried by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis."

Mrs. Tudury announced the following committee and their chairmen: Pat Murphy, City fund-raising director special events; Mrs. Dorothy Turner, Waveland fund-raising director; Mrs. Sidney Bourgeois, Waveland school; Edmond Blaize, Sidney Manieri, sports events; Mrs. Dan M. Russell, women's committee; Mrs. Dennis Whitfield and Mrs. Kenneth Whitfield, mothers march on polo; Miss Julia Blaize, Bay High; Andy Becker, Theo Tudury Jr., coin collectors; Kenneth Whitfield, advance special gifts; Dr. C. M. Shipps, speaking committee; Miss Udell Favre, Jno. Danborno publicity; George Stevenson, Dan M. Russell Jr. and T. F. Monti, door committee.

The Executive Chapter officers for Hancock County are Mrs. Theo Tudury, County Chairman; Joe B. Burrow, vice-chairman; Andy Becker, treasurer; Miss Bobbie Coleman, secretary; Dr. C. M. Shipps, medical advisor.

In making the announcement, the director emphasized that all committees still are in need of volunteers, both men and women, and that enlistments will continue even during the campaign if necessary. She said, it is due to the unparelled need of the March of Dimes appeal to every business, organization and individual in the county.

There was a special number by Miss Lloa Price who sang as a solo "The Glory of His Presence," with organ accompaniment by Mrs. Goldman.

Rev. C. C. Clark who served as pastor of the church from 1928 to 1932 brought a short message expressing appreciation of the people of Bay St. Louis for their loyalty and courtesy to him and Mrs. Clark during their stay here. In his message he stressed the importance of organization of all protestant churches and emphasized strength of unity and said that there is greater need of organization today than ever before.

Other visiting pastors recognized were Rev. J. Bonaccarere, Rev. and Mrs. Heath of Claremont Harbor.

The late Andrew Allison, who taught the Bible class for many years, was mentioned.

PASS HIGH SCHOOL MAKES PLANS FOR INDIVIDUAL NEEDS

The State Department of Education with the cooperation of teachers and parents of students in the Pass High School will work toward the placement of those in need of specialized or individual instruction according to a statement issued Monday morning by Norman Hall.

Expanding the plan, Mr. Hall said the school will put up the required sum of $5 per student for each student whose scholastic record would indicate a need for specialized teaching. This $5.00 fee will be paid for a complete examination of the student by a competent physician, a trained psychiatrist and also a Ph.D. When examinations are completed and a well-rounded picture of each case thoroughly studied, the group will make recommendations. The state department funds allow about $200 per student per year for the employment of a teacher for these individual classes. A group of not less than five and not over fifteen pupils is permitted in special classes.

Mr. Hall says that his faculty meeting discussions indicate a need of at least 15, perhaps several more, whose habits, interests, aptitudes and scholastic record would require specialized teaching. He says that he intends to follow as nearly as possible the recommendations made by the examining staff and hopes to have the whole-hearted support of parents and students in this endeavor which aims at fitting the education program to the pupil's need primarily and will also greatly improve class-room teaching for the normal public school program of education. Mr. Hall pointed out that the student in need of individual training might retard the progress of the class as a unit or simply sit in the classroom and did not make use of his special aptitudes and abilities.

Largest problem that looms before those planning for specialized teaching is classroom space. All rooms in the school are in constant use. Despite this obstacle, Mr. Hall believes that individual instruction for these exceptional students will begin early in January.

R. S. HECHT'S BOOK OF INTERNATIONAL SCOPE EASY READING

"Around the Face of the Globe" is the title of R. S. Hecht's latest book. It describes Mr. Hecht's recent trip which took him into 28 different countries, scattered over four continents and consumed 100 days. The book, compiled from a series of 20 letters written by Mr. Hecht and addressed to Theodore Brent, president of the Mississippi Shipping Co. describes incidents en route and meetings with prominent persons. It contains a wealth of up-to-date information in a readable form. Mr. Hecht owns a home in Pass Christian.

CONTEST WINNERS RECEIVE PRIZES

Bobby Dubuisson and Marion Moffitt were proclaimed winners in the Curtis Publishing Company subscription contest, sponsored by the Junior Class of Pass High, and have received their prize money of $10 and $5 respectively. Reports are the class as a whole sold some $400 worth of subscriptions, and 20 per cent of the amount will go into the treasury of the class to be spent toward the annual Junior-Senior Prom. Highest individual sales were made by Bobby who brought in $81, and Marion took second place with $70 sales record.

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS DEC. 19 TO JAN. 5 FOR PASS PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Announcement has been made by Norman Hall, Superintendent of Schools, that Christmas Holidays will be observed in the public schools of Harrison County beginning Friday afternoon, December 19, following the school Christmas parties and class work will begin on the morning of January 5.

Already the Yule Season is getting into swing in the school's activities. Rooms in the lower grades have been decorated with unusual and artistic motifs, planned and made by the students with minimum teacher supervision. In the upper grades, practice for the annual Christmas Pageant to be presented December 19, is underway. Friday afternoon has been set aside for "room parties" where there will be games, gift-exchanges and refreshments.

CRAFT CLUB MAKES BOAT

The Craft Club of the Pass High School under the leadership of Norman Hall, with a roster of 30 students, has assembled its first boat and will offer it for sale in the near future for about $160. "This sum just clears the expense of the material used," explained Mr. Hall. When the boat is sold the money will be used to buy needed materials for other club building projects.

BAND FOR PASS IS ORGANIZED

"If sufficient interest is shown on the parts of parents Pass Christian Public School will once again have its band," says Norman Hall, James Brent of the Long Beach Public School is in the process of organizing a band here. Arrangements have been made whereby interested students may rent instruments for the "try-out" period of three months at a rental of only $5 per month. Should the student show an aptitude for the instrument selected he may purchase it and the rental paid out will be applied against the purchase price.

There is no money available within the school's budget to pay for band instruction. Interested students will pay individually for lessons. The exact fee has not been determined for the fee will be pro-rated so the larger the band the smaller the individual fee.

The Band Hut, now housing a morning kindergarten will be used for band practice in the afternoons.

DOLL & TOY FUND ROTARY PROJECT NEEDS YOUR HELP

Every Christmas the Pass Christian Rotary Club sponsors a Doll and Toy Fund for families who are not able to buy Christmas toys for their children.

Mrs. Julia Everett, a social worker, cooperates with the Rotary by making a survey and estimating the needs. This year about 135 families in Pass Christian need help. The Rotary Club believes $500 will be sufficient to do the job. Both white and colored families will be helped when needed. Latest report showed approximately $70 on hand but Rotary members are confident that again this year the people will respond generously and all the children of the Pass will be able to celebrate Christmas with joy and happiness. Reverend W. S. Allen, working on the committee for the Doll and Toy Fund, would appreciate early donations for their simplifying planning.

Mrs. Everett plans to visit every child and find out his special desire and with the help of a committee Christmas wrap and deliver these gifts on Christmas Eve.

NEED A BROOM? BUY IN JANUARY

If you are need of a broom or an apron won't you please make the old one do until January 10 when a Broom and Apron Sale, sponsored by the Pass Christian Lion's Club, will be held. The sale will be held in front of the City Hall and trucks will also park in convenient spots for customers. Money from this sale will help some needy people to better eye sight.

AVALON THEATRE CHRISTMAS EVE CHILDREN'S PARTY

Mrs. Ivy Ladner announces that again this year on December 24 a free matinee will be presented for all children of Pass Christian, both white and colored, as a Christmas gift from the Avalon Theatre. The entertainment will consist of several comic strips in Christmas subjects and following the Show Rotary Club candies will be distributed as the children leave the theatre.

FARMERS PROLOGUE AT MIDWINTER TO AID GOLF CLUB HOUSE

"Everybody's Welcome," says E. A. Lang, "and we expect a good lively crowd of farmers and farmereettes to dance at the Midamar Hotel Saturday night. A good band will play and admission of $1.50 per person will go toward the building of a Club House in connection with the newly organized Golf Club at Henderson Point." The course is said to be popular and used by members as well as outsiders who pay a nominal green fee.

SAFETY PATROL BOYS GET OFFICIAL BADGE

Miss Naomi Saucier, principal of the elementary public school in Pass Christian, announced the selection of 16 boys who recently received badges as Official Safety Patrol Officers.

These patrol officers safe-guard the school children and tend to

AUTOMATIC GAS HEAT... WHAT'S THE COST?

THE cost of providing gas service, like that of nearly all other products and services, has increased materially in recent years, but the natural gas that heats your home still costs you about the same as it did ten years ago.

When you think of the warmth and comfort you obtain with automatic gas heat—the freedom from cold spots and drafts, the elimination of sweating on windows and walls and the absence of stains on curtains and furniture—we think you'll agree your natural gas service is worth much more than it costs!

Is The Catholic Church A MENACE TO DEMOCRACY?

Every now and then a false rumor about the Catholic Church gets into circulation and—for a time—fools a lot of people.

Usually such rumors die out when fair-minded people learn the truth. But some of them pop up again like "ghosts" out of the distance past, to deceive people who have not heard them before.

The one most prevalent today is that American freedom is in danger from "the anti-democratic program of the Roman hierarchy."

This, to some people, will sound new and alarming. Actually, there is nothing new about it.

Catholics of a century ago heard the same "alarm"... that the Church was hostile to our form of government—that she was anti-republican in spirit and influence—that she would disregard our free institutions and deprive us of our self-government.

Even those who do not understand the teaching and practices of the Catholic Church will have to admit the falsity of this rumor... for the evidence of a hundred years contradicts it in every particular.

The Catholic people always have stood shoulder-to-shoulder with their non-Catholic fellow-citizens in building and defending our liberty and free institutions.

The rumor of today... like the rumor of a hundred years ago... does not claim that the Catholic Church is harmful to men's souls. It does not claim that the Church endangers the salvation of mankind. Its entire objection is that the Church is hostile to our political and social institutions.

In this there is a remarkable resemblance to the "alarm" sounded against Jesus Christ Himself.

"If we let this man go," said the Savior's critics, "the Romans will come and take away our name and our nation."

Some think that Catholics should get their blood pressure up and reply angrily to these rumors. This is not necessary. We know that the American people of all faiths... with their traditional sense of justice... will boot this ghost back into its closet without our help.

Free
 But if you would like to know the Catholic attitude toward democratic freedom, our form of self-government, and the rights of the State and the individual, write today for free pamphlet on the subject. Just ask for Pamphlet No. KC-21.

Conservation New

D. D. Pittman, District Cooperator of Flatport Community, has completed seeding 22 acres of low wet land to Kentucky 31 Fescue and 32 acres of Bahia grass on his farm. 3200 linear feet of secondary drainage ditch and 30000 linear feet of V-ditches were constructed by Pittman to drain the low wet land during the summer, so that the land would be properly drained prior to pasture seeding. Soil Conservation Service Technicians prepared plans, surveyed and supervised construction of the ditches. 126 acres of wet land was reclaimed for pasture on Pittman's farm.

E. C. (Coney) Weston, District Cooperator, resides on his farm on the Jordan River, two miles west of Kiln. Weston overseeded 26 acres of Bahia grass with re-seeding crimson clover. Weston added minerals and renovated Bahia grass prior to overseeding the Bahia.

Weston replanted 5 acres of Coastal Bermuda grass last February. Weston cultivated and applied 200 lbs. Ammonia to the Bermuda to make it grow faster, in order to produce early spring grazing.

Weston cleared 20 acres of cut-over land for additional winter pasture. Re-seeding Rye grass and Re-seeding Crimson Clover was planted on this pasture of winter grazing. Soil Conservation Service Technicians assisted Weston to make plans for pasture improvement.

Sam Whitfield, District Cooperator of Flatport Community, recently completed renovating 22 acres of Ky. 31 Fescue. Whitfield applied 100 lbs. Ammonia, 300 lbs phosphate and 150 lbs. potash to the Fescue. Recent rains has made the Fescue grow fast for early grazing.

Robert Miller, District Cooperator of Flatport Community, recently planted a two (2) acre Pensacola Bahia seed patch. Seed Commissioners by the Soil Conservation Service. The District Commissioners has made an agreement with Miller to plant the Bahia for increase seed production for the District.

Bream for stocking fish ponds were supplied by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Lyman, Miss., to the following District Cooperators: James L. Lee, Carl Goss, Isham K. Lee, J. T. Kenneth Lee Robert Carson Lee and Joseph L. Ladner. The Cooperators received the bream at Lyman Hatchery. Bass will be added to the ponds next spring. Soil Conservation Service Technicians assisted the District Cooperators in obtaining the bream from the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

With the year's end still weeks away, 1952 has already rung the bell as a banner year in soil conservation in Hancock County. James L. Bishop, Work Unit Conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service, reports.

As of November 30, a total of 32 new cooperators representing 3,851 acres has joined the soil conservation program, with 13 active applicants on farms consisting of 2239 acres, are making every effort to work out a con-

Entertain Band

The St. Stanislaus Band Auxiliary entertained the band members and their dates at a banquet Sunday, December 7, at 8:00 p. m. The annual Christmas party was held at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club.

Members of the auxiliary prepared dinner for approximately 100 guests. Favors and gifts were given to those attending. Gerald Kimble, band captain, presented records to Brothers Martial, and director from his students.

Following the banquet the orchestra played several numbers dedicated to the mothers, and general dancing for varsity band members followed.

Visit Fairs

Recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Farr were Mr. and Mrs. DeLacer and children, Andrea and Sandra, of Mobile, Alabama; Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Corley and son, Hollie of New Iberia; Mr. and Mrs. Gaspard Soldini and Mrs. Lillian Labatt of New Orleans; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Trapani and daughter, Janet and Anthony Trapani of Bay St. Louis.

Mrs. John Shubert and son, Francis, drove to New Orleans Monday evening to visit her first granddaughter, Annette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Shubert.

servation farm plan by December 31, 1952, as compared with 40 farmers and 5,947 acres in 1951.

By December 31, at the present rate, James L. Bishop estimated that 274 farmers representing 34,749 acres will have started conservation farming in the district. In addition, the Soil Conservation Service has assisted 5 PMA participants in planning and applying permanent-type soil conservation practices on their farms.

One of the factors in the increased number of district cooperators has been the new system of progressive planning, set up in the Hancock County Soil Conservation District, with the approval of the Board of Commissioners, of which Otho Rester is chairman.

This new system enables a farmer to start the initial phase of a soil conservation district program immediately with only two practices and go on from there to the advanced stages and finally to the basic stage of farm planning in which a soil and water conservation program is developed for his entire farm.

Another factor which is expected to have an increasing effect in speeding up conservation work on the land is the recent realignment of Soil Conservation Service personnel. The former district conservationists has been replaced by a smaller number of Area Conservationists with supervision over a larger territory, thus making it possible to have additional personnel for technical on-site assistance to farmers on the land.

WEEKLY NEWS LETTER

W. F. Bond, Director of Public Welfare
State Department of Public Welfare

Money paid for intelligent supervision in any business or program very likely yields greater dividends for services rendered than does a like amount paid for any other part of the cost of administration. A certain mercantile establishment in the State employs 450 persons, 46 of whom do not sell goods over the counter and work mostly in a supervisory capacity. It is said that every tenth man in an army is an officer of some kind. It takes several coaches to train men to work together so effectively that they can win games in a college football contest. The Public Welfare Program this biennium will spend approximately $82,000,000 State and Federal funds to help the needy people of the State, ranging in age all the way from the cradle to the grave, each one being helped under Federal and State laws in accordance with his need. To determine who is to receive this help and to render other necessary services, is a most responsible, technical, and difficult job demanding supervision of the highest order to prevent duplication of effort and to insure justice to all those who apply for assistance. It means continuous training on the job of every worker in the Welfare Program, which is a rather large order for the eight district supervisors charged with this responsibility in the Welfare Program.

Search For Old Johnson Motors

Waukegan, Ill.—Hundreds of persons over the United States have responded to the quest for old Johnson outboard motors for museum purposes.

With the old-motor search only a week under way, Johnson Motors headquarters in Waukegan had received letters and registrations from outboard owners in 30 states. While heaviest registrations were from Illinois and nearby Wisconsin, some of the lowest motor numbers came from such distant states as Florida, the Carolinas, New York and Texas.

The search for the 50 oldest Johnson outboards still in existence is part of the firm's celebration of production of its millionth motor—the first "million" mark to be reached by an outboard manufacturer.

For the oldest 10 Johnson outboards found, the manufacturer will exchange a new Sea Horse 3. Owners of the next 40 oldest will receive merchandise awards and are not required to turn their motors in.

Old-motor numbers may be listed with any Johnson dealer, who will verify the serial number and send the registration form to the Waukegan office.

The millionth motor, which came off the assembly line in the first part of November, is a 10 horsepower model. It will have a special chrome-and-gold trim and be displayed at leading boat shows over the nation.

Johnson's outboard production started in 1921 with the serial number "A-501." Charles A. Breath, Jr., is a local distributor for Johnson Motors in Bay St. Louis.

Accept Civil Service Applications for Stenographers

Applications are being accepted by the Tenth U. S. Civil Service Region 442 Canal Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, for Stenographers at salaries ranging from $2750 to $3175 a year, and Typists at $2750 and $2950 a year, according to a statement issued today by A. J. Leach, Regional Director. Applications will be accepted until further notice.

Indefinite appointments to these positions will be made in Federal agencies in Louisiana and Mississippi. The minimum age is 17 years; there is no maximum. Applicants will be required to pass a written test.

Application forms and additional information can be secured from Post Offices in Louisiana and Mississippi, or from the Tenth U. S. Civil Service Region, 442 Canal Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

Accept Applications For Tree Seedlings

Tree seedling applications are again being accepted by the Mississippi Forestry Commission for certain species it was announced by C. B. Marlin, forest management director. Distribution of orders received during the four-month period of July 1 to November 1 reveal that a surplus of seedlings still exists with five of the eight originally available species.

Species still available are slash pine, Mississippi cypress, Arizona cypress, catalpa and black locust. Orders for these seedlings will be received on a first-come, first-served basis as they reach the Jackson Office of the Mississippi Forestry Commission.

All agricultural agencies taking tree seedling orders should forward them to the Jackson Office immediately so that acceptance of orders may be stopped as soon as the seedling supply of a certain species is exhausted. Orders may be sent to: Area Forester, Jack Stewart or County Agent Howard Simmons at their offices in the Agricultural Center.

Along with the other public schools in Mississippi, last week Kiln school received a copy of the Mississippi School Bulletin, which is the Educational Directory for 1933-34, issued by the State Department of Education, giving a list of the four-year accredited high schools of Mississippi.

Kiln is the only fully accredited high school in rural Hancock County, however, some of the others are listed as being on probation.

We are glad to have Mary Louise Necaise Moran, our senior president, back at school.

The parents of Liston Necaise, a former graduate of Kiln school, received a telegram stating that Liston was released from the army November 29 and will reach home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Haas, both of whom are former students of Kiln school, are the proud parents of a son, who was born at King's Daughters hospital, November 31. Wallace is in Chicago serving in the air force.

Several students have received Christmas cards containing pictures of Michael Ladner, our 6 ft. 4 inch former basketball star, who is serving in the air force in Germany.

A young man bent on "making good" is usually a good worker and a good citizen. He's a man with ideas and a goal he's trying hard to attain.

The Oil and Gas Industry in Mississippi is just such a youngster. Only 13 years ago it got its start when oil was discovered in Yazoo County. Since that fateful day in 1939 the Oil and Gas Industry has come a long way toward "making good" in Mississippi. It is a hard-working industry.

The Oil and Gas Industry has faith in Mississippi—her people and her future—as well as in its own future here. If it didn't believe in these things it wouldn't be drilling holes in the ground that cost $40,000 to $200,000 apiece; wouldn't be constantly increasing its capital investments in property and equipment in Mississippi; wouldn't be encouraging hundreds of skilled men to come with their families and live in this state.

This youthful industry is making good FOR Mississippi, too. It is a good citizen that has shouldered its share of the responsibility that goes with our American Way of Life...

no other industry does more to assure the careful conservation and proper use of Mississippi's natural resources.

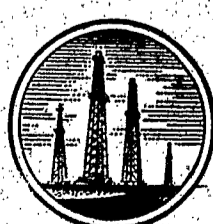

In money contribution the Oil and Gas Industry added $50 million to the economy of Mississippi last year... $10 million in county and state taxes; $15 million in wages and salaries paid to 5000 production employees; $18 million in royalties, leases and royalties paid to Mississippi landowners and $7 million for supplies and services.

Mississippi's oil and gas industry has ideas, too—big ideas—about making Mississippi one of the leading states in oil and gas production. Its goal is finding more of the oil and gas that is hidden beneath Mississippi land—the discovery of which will expand the economy of our state by increasing trade, attracting new people and industries, increasing tax revenues; and bulwark the security and broaden the opportunity of every Mississippian, old and young.

Yes, Mississippi's Oil and Gas Industry is young, but it is making good in Mississippi—and FOR Mississippi.

WEEKLY NEWS LETTER

by
W. F. Boyd, Director of Public Relations
State Department of Public Welfare

Very few people are as happy as they should be for the reason that they are not thankful for the good things of life that are theirs every day of the year. They take these things for granted and worry about some things they don't have. They keep thinking that some time in the future they will be happy and that they will take time out to really enjoy their friends and acquaintances and the other blessings they have. This future day never comes for on the average life with us is as good today as it will ever be. We should be thankful every day for everything we have for we pass this way just once, and before we realize it we have come to the end of our way. While we rejoice during Thanksgiving week we should remember that those who are cold and hungry and friendless will very likely feel their situation more keenly than at any other time of the year. Thousands of our good citizens, I hope, are thankful for the Public Welfare.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Baggett are shown following their recent marriage at Logtown Baptist church. Mrs. Baggett is the former Louise Maskew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Maskew of Bay St. Louis.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
ABOUT
EMPLOYMENT SECURITY

This article, the sixth in a series on the Mississippi Employment Security Program, is devoted to a continued discussion of payment of unemployment insurance benefits to unemployed workers.

Q. What are the limits on benefits any one worker can draw?

A. The Maximum benefit is thirty dollars per week and the minimum is three dollars per week.

Q. How is the weekly benefit amount figured?

A. It is based on the worker's wage credits. His weekly benefit amount depends on how much money he earned in the first four quarters of the preceding calendar year. The more money he earned, the greater his weekly benefits will be.

Q. What is the maximum amount he can draw in a year?

A. Sixteen times the weekly benefit amount is all a worker can draw in one benefit year. If he is totally unemployed and draws the maximum, he will exhaust his wage credits in sixteen weeks. But if he is working part time he can draw the difference between what he has drawn and his weekly benefit. TEEN TIMES THE BENEFIT AMOUNT and by working part time he can extend his eligibility for more than sixteen weeks. If a worker has drawn the maximum amount he is eligible for in a benefit year. Q. What does "benefit year" mean?

A. A benefit year is the calendar year following the date on which a worker files his first claim, known as the "initial claim." For instance: if he first files for benefits on July 1st, his benefit year will expire the following June 30th.

Q. What is the least amount a worker must have earned to be eligible for the maximum benefit of thirty dollars per week?

A. Nine hundred dollars, provided that at least $754.01 was earned in one quarter. The amount any particular claimant is eligible for depends on his work history and how much wages he earned in the various preceding five quarters.

Next week—more information on the unemployment insurance program.
